3 INTRODUCTION

The Communications Authority of Kenya (the Authority) is the regulator for the ICT industry in Kenya with responsibilities in telecommunications, e-commerce, broadcasting and postal/courier services. The Authority is also responsible for managing the country's Numbering and Frequency Spectrum resources, as well safeguarding interests of consumers of ICT services.

Pursuant to the Kenya Information and Communications Act (KICA) No.2 of 1998 (Cap 411A), and the Kenya Information and Communications (Numbering) Regulations 2010, the Authority is mandated to develop plans, Manage and Administer the National Communications Numbering and Addressing resources.

In view of the above mandate, the Authority hereby issues these procedures and guidelines in the use of numbering resources. These guidelines are developed based on principles, standards and practices aimed at ensuring availability of adequate numbering resources for use by consumers, ICT industries and growth of the sector. They are also aimed at protecting consumers from premature, disruptive and costly subscriber numbering number changes which may be as a result of inefficient use of the resources.

3.1. Application and scope

These procedures and guidelines issued apply to Licensed ICT service providers that utilize numbering resources from the national numbering resource scheme, for internal operations, interconnection, routing and provision to end users.

3.2. Objective and Scope

The objective is to provide a framework for efficient use and progressive management of the numbering resources for equitable access, fair competition and consumer protection. They should also ensure continuous availability and support the growth of the industry.

3.2. Effective Date

These Guidelines will be effective from 1st September 2020.

'Procedures and Guidelines for the Management and Administration of Short Codes and Premium Rate Numbers 2012', shall be repealed and replaced by these guidelines from the effective date.
